i-learning IFRS

i-learning IFRS is an intelligent learning system that provides individualised online training smoothly aligned with the company's HR process. It is your online partner in lean finance.

We help you work effectively and intelligently

i-learning IFRS accelerates the team's performance in Accounting Technique and Analysis at all levels, thus improving the Reporting process immediately:

▶ Enables each individual accountant or analyst in applying IFRS on the job, gaining on-the-spot guidance and confidence in IFRS compliance.

▶ Develops the individual systematically and methodically to an advanced level in IFRS – skill up immediately at any level, guarantee uniformity of skills across teams.

▶ Links directly to the HR process by enabling managers to support the team so that they know who has achieved what skills and when.

Who is it for?

i-learning IFRS is specially designed for Accountants, Chief Accountants, Financial Managers and Directors, Auditors, CFOs, Investment Managers and Analysts who need to understand, interpret and apply IFRS and also maintain the skills and the knowledge fully up to date in the long run.

All standards and interpretations are covered, along with rich guidance materials and resources that can be used at work. All examples and case studies are real-life and practical, requiring participants to apply the skills and tools learnt as well as applying judgement.

" We have been very happy to have this innovative programme customised for our finance needs. It fits well with our objective of lean finance. We needed comprehensive content, flexible methodology, ongoing and on demand support, robust software for both the trainees and the management that control the process.

We enable you to apply knowledge in practice

- Clear, easy-to-understand language that relates to real-life examples and problems makes the complex financial language of IFRS more easily and quickly understood.
- Ensure staff skill up on Financial English as they go along with our quality assured materials!
- Examples with full double entry, real-life case studies and communication with a dedicated trainer enable users to apply the skills and tools learnt and, importantly, apply judgement.
- A wide range of topics is available for reference, even when users are engaged in linear training on a separate topic.

i-learning IFRS is your online partner in navigating the complex world of financial reporting and achieving process optimisation.

Provide your teams with confidence, motivation and the relevant skills.

Although the programme assumes basic accounting knowledge, all double entry and all concepts are available as a refresher.
